

Rule 9 Questions

- 1) Blocking below the waist is always a foul.
 - a) T
 - b) F
- 2) If R-44 gives a valid or invalid fair catch signal, then blocks a member of the kicking team trying to “down” the kick before it goes into the end zone, it is an illegal block, 15 yard foul.
 - a) T
 - b) F
- 3) If a coach unintentionally contacts an official in the restricted zone, while the ball is live, it is an automatic 15 yard penalty. If it’s the second offense, the head coach is also disqualified, regardless of which coach made contact with the official.
 - a) T
 - b) F
- 4) Unsportsmanlike fouls are always non-contact.
 - a) T
 - b) F
- 5) If a defender’s helmet comes completely off during a down, then he pursues the runner and makes the tackle, it is illegal participation.
 - a) T
 - b) F
- 6) The kicking team can never bat a kick.
 - a) T
 - b) F
- 7) Pass eligibility rules and pass interference rules only apply to a LEGAL forward pass.
 - a) T
 - b) F
- 8) On a try for point, the holder muffs the snap and it’s rolling on the ground when the kicker moves forward and kicks the ball through the uprights. This is legal, and the PAT is good.
 - a) T
 - b) F
- 9) If the coach is in the restricted area during the down, but makes no contact with an official, it’s an automatic 5-yard penalty.
 - a) T
 - b) F
- 10) Up to three team attendants are permitted on the field during the 1-minute intermission after a PAT.
 - a) T
 - b) F

Rule 10 Questions

- 1) A captain may call a time-out to consult with his coaches, prior to making a penalty decision.
 - a) T
 - b) F
- 2) A live ball foul by Team A, followed by a dead ball foul by Team B, would result in a double foul.
 - a) T
 - b) F
- 3) If both teams commit a 15-yard dead ball foul immediately after a down, but before either is administered by the Referee, the penalties "cancel". However, if they are unsportsmanlike fouls, they would count as one of the two unsportsmanlike fouls an individual can have before disqualification.
 - a) T
 - b) F
- 4) B intercepts a pass and is downed at their own 20 yard line. During the down, Team A is flagged for an illegal shift, and Team B is flagged for clipped during the return. This is a double-foul, and the down is automatically replayed.
 - a) T
 - b) F
- 5) B intercepts a pass and is downed at their own 20 yard line. During the down, Team A is flagged for an illegal shift, and Team B is flagged for holding a receiver prior to the forward pass. This is a double-foul, and the down is automatically replayed.
 - a) T
 - b) F
- 6) Lineman A55 is flagged for holding, while the QB is dropping back to pass. The QB then throws a forward pass, complete to A88. The holding penalty is a loose-ball play.
 - a) T
 - b) F
- 7) Penalties are always enforced from the Basic Spot.
 - a) T
 - b) F
- 8) A12 takes the snap and drops back into his own end zone, where B44 pulls his facemask. A12 then throws an incomplete pass. The enforcement spot is the goal line.
 - a) T
 - b) F
- 9) A12 takes the snap and drops back into his own end zone, where B44 pulls his facemask, and downs him for an apparent safety. The enforcement spot is the goal line.
 - a) T
 - b) F
- 10) Team B intercepts a pass in their own end zone. A65 pulls the facemask of B44 while in the end zone, and B44 fumbles. The loose ball goes out of bounds at the B-3. The penalty is assessed from the B-3.
 - a) T
 - b) F